Thinking Out Loud

H. M. L. Jr.

The war, with its desperate gravity, and its demand that all our tools be so geared that we may strive towards its rapid and successful conclusion, is beginning to impose changes in all our lives. Of the many tools of public life which must be sharpened and coordinated, perhaps none is more important than morale. And in the face of coming sacrifices, it is possible that morale might well be whetted and strengthened by a greater appreciation of the good and interesting things of life that we have about us. So it is in this spirit, believing that our subject, the colorful history of Nevada City, can thus be integrated with the essential effort of this time, that we continue the series of notes on our community's roistering past.

The gold hunters that thronged the Sierra Nevadas in the fifties were drawn from all walks of life, and among them, reveling in the lack of restraint in the swashbuckling western way of living, was a remarkable assortment of rough-hewn characters. According to Aaron Sargent's "Sketch of Nevada County," published with the directory issued on January 1, 1856, Nevada City had its share of colorful and interesting people. The letters of Tallman Hathaway Rolfe, published in 1931, also bear witness to this fact.

In October, 1856, a traveling circus passed through Nevada City. Two of the performers, a most attractive young miss named Jenny Rowe, 15, and her sister Lola, 13, became too ill to travel. The proprietors of Rowe's Circus, their parents, arranged to board them in Nevada City with a Mrs. Palmer, until they returned a year later. The sister lived with Mrs. Palmer but Jenny Rowe was never to return to the traveling circus. The girl was dark and slim, with the charm and vivacity of a Spanish creole, and a hoyden streak of tomboy deviltry in her character. Women were scarce in Nevada City then and, as always, pretty women were sought after. This sparkling-eyed young woman had a host of admirers.

In 1857, when she was seventeen, Jenny Rowe became enamored of a quiet but rather dangerous young gambler whose name was Frank Moore. Their love grew, and breathlessly, they planned an elopment. This adventurous project, discovered by Mrs. Palmer, met with her unmitigated disapproval, and that stalwart lady decided to interpose some obstacles in the smooth progress of romance. One evening she discovered that Jenny planned to elope that very night, and was going to try to slip out through the kitchen door.

When, in the dark of night, Frank Moore had stealthily approached the kitchen door, he whistled low and sweet. Expectantly, with love in his heart, and the amorous whistle just dying on his lips, he opened the door. Bam! His love call was vigorously answered by Mrs. Palmer's loud and indignant epithets. Poor Frank, well-accustomed and expert in the use of Mr. Colt's mortal pacifiers, found himself helpless before the ferocious Amazon. She belabored his head and shoulders with a heavy ladle to the tune of his surprised and agonized bellows. Moore departed immediately, and left the vicinity with remarkable speed.

Finally Jenny Rowe successfully eloped with Frank Moore. Shortly after they were married, Jenny was the belle of a dinner party given by miners of the Lecompton Lead. Her husband was reported to have been made jealous by Jenny's extreme popularity.

Frank Moore shot and killed

Lava Cap Will Give Yule Bonus

MEN WITH COMPANY MORE THAN YEAR WILL RECEIVE $25

Lava Cap Mines employees who have been with the company more than one year will receive $25 as a Christmas gift.

This was announced today by General Manager Otto Schiffner. Employees with the company at least three months but less than a year will receive $10 and employees of less than three months standing will be given $5.

This bonus will materially add to the pre-Christmas pay received by the Lava Cap workers.

At the present time there are 327 men at the Lava Cap properties. Of that number 184 are at the Central Mine and 143 at the Banner Mine.

Here On Business—

Ranger H. I. Snider of the Truckee district was a business visitor at the Tahoe National Forest Service headquarters here yesterday.

Development Work Is Continuing At Murchie And Zeibright Mines

Development work is continuing at both the Murchie and Zeibright Mines.

A crosscut is being driven at the Murchie and at the Zeibright a tunnel is being driven from the Omega Mine to connect with the Zeibright workings on the other side of the mountain.

The Murchie now employs 30 men while 40 are at work at the Zeibright.

Reveals Betrothal

Miss Ruth Curnow, who is engaged to wed William Bennett, is shown above. Ruth is a teacher in the Grass Valley elementary school system and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Curnow of Nevada City. Bennett is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Bennett of this city. He was recently commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Air Corps.

SIREN WILL WARN LOCAL RESIDENTS OF AIR RAID

Nevada City residents will be warned of air raids by the enemy with a huge siren.

The siren is now being constructed.

It was decided to obtain the siren because of the confusion resulting from whistles. A whistle, it was reported, is not distinctive enough.

Tests had been made with several whistles but they were not loud enough to hear for any great distance.

IDAHO-MARYLAND EMPLOYS 880

Employment at the Idaho-Maryland Mines Corporation, as of November 30th, dropped over the previous month. The total number of men at work at the Idaho-Maryland properties is 880, compared to 888 the previous month.

Work is proceeding normally at the Idaho-Maryland and New Brunswick.

ROTARY ENJOYS XMAS PARTY

Today's Rotary noon program and luncheon was highlighted by the annual Christmas party under the chairmanship of Rotarian Jack Osborne.

Rotarians have each been given the name of one of their fellow club members and are asked to bring toy gifts and to enclose suitable cesses to present to the receiver of the gifts. Following the luncheon program, the toys were turned over to the White Christmas celebration for distribution to the needy.

The members of the club always look forward to this annual event with enthusiasm. Some surprise entertainment made a big hit. President Helm Kjorlie presided.

RED CROSS WAR RELIEF DRIVE TO START SOON

R. J. Bennetts, chairman of the Red Cross war relief drive, announced a meeting of workers will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Red Cross headquarters in the city hall here.

The drive for Nevada City's quota, which is $2,000, will open next week, Bennetts announced.

Captains who will report at the meeting tomorrow for instructions include Mrs. H. S. Foreman, Mrs. Russell Wilson, Mrs. Ed C. Uren, Mrs. William James, Mrs. William Young, Mrs. Donald Steger, Mrs. Delbert Schiffner, Mrs. Ernest L. Baxter, Mrs. Eugene Tucker, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Champie, Mrs. Simkins, Mrs. H. Ward Sheldon, Mrs. Martha Elliott, Mrs. E. Berger and Mrs. Theodore Nelson.

Plans are being made to sell the equipment and property at the Bullion Mine. The property has practically been closed since the strike last May.

Only maintenance crews are kept at the mine.

HOME MERCHANTS READY TO PROVIDE YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING NEEDS

Christmas comes but once a year. This coming Christmas, which is only a week away, will find this nation enveloped in war but world strife should be forgotten in the joy of the yule season.

This is The Nugget's annual Christmas shopping issue. We urge local residents to use the ads as as shopping guide. Nevada County merchants are ready to serve you.

And with all let us remember these things:

Shopping at home not only benefits the merchants but benefits yourself.

Our home merchants can duplicate the prices made by any reasonable concern anywhere on goods of equal quality, in the same quantities and on the same basis of delivery and payment.

We can examine our purchases in the home stores and be assured of satisfaction before investing our money.

Our home merchants are always ready and willing to make right any error or any defective article purchased.

Our home merchants help support, through direct and indirect taxation, our schools, churches and other public institutions.

Our home merchants are our good friends, ever ready to extend a helping hand in time of need.

If this area is good enough for us to live in and make our money in, 'tis good enough to spend our money in.

Every dollar kept in circulation in this county helps increase property values. Every dollar sent out of the county that could be well spent here hinders the wheels of progress and helps build up some other community at our expense.

Let's trade at home.

Employment In Nevada County Mines Decreases Slightly In Past Month

MANY MINERS WITHOUT FAMILY TIES LEAVE THIS DISTRICT FOR EMPLOYMENT ELSEWHERE

Nevada County mines employment dropped off slightly during the past month but the decline appeared no immediate cause for alarm. The drop apparently was due principally to the inability of the operators to find experienced miners. A great many miners who have no family ties are continuing to leave for elswhere, where their services are being used in the interests of national defense.

It has been noted from past experiences that the mining industry suffers a relapse during war times. However, it is possible the government will make every effort during this war to keep the gold mines supplied with proper materials for operations.

The employment survey of the Nugget shows there is now 2,370 men at work in the mines in the county. The payroll is $355,500, approximately, monthly.

The payroll figures for the various operating mines in the county are:

IDAHO-MARYLAND WILL GIVE FROM $5 TO $50 BONUS

Approximately 900 employees of the Idaho-Maryland Corporation Mines Corporation learned today they will be given Christmas bonuses ranging from $5 to $50.

The Idaho-Maryland was the first company to announce its plan for its employees this Christmas.

The bonus this year is the same as given the last several years. The $50 gift will go to employees of the company more than five years.

It was also announced those who enlisted in the United States armed forces or were inducted into military service while in the employ of the company will receive Christmas bonuses on the same basis as regular employees.

The bnous given by the Idaho-Maryland will provide workers with thousands of dollars of additional shopping money.

Here For Holidays—

Elsie Schreiber has arrived in Nevada City to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schreiber.

Noble McCormack Appointed Service Station Manager

The appointment of Noble McCormack, at present deputy county clerk, as manager of the Shell Oil Company Service Station at Main and Nevada Streets in this city was announced today by Charles Skewes, county manager for the Shell Oil Company.

McCormack will take over his duties after attending the Shell Oil Company training school in Sacramento for two weeks. Noble will leave for the training school on December 29th.

In the meanwhile, the Shell Company has started plans to completely remodel the Main and Nevada Street station, which was formerly operated by Jack Shebley.

Skewes said an engineer came to Nevada City this afternoon to make plans for the remodeling. The station is expected to be one of the finest in the county.

County courthouse atttaches will regret to learn of his decision to sever his connection with the county clerk's office but are wishing him every success in his new venture.

TINY TOT'S STYLE REVIEW WILL BE GIVEN AT ELEMENTARY PTA MEETING TOMORROW

The Nevada City Elementary School Parent Teachers Association meeting tomorrow will have as its feature a Tiny Tot's Style Review, presented by the primary grades.

President Mrs. L. G. Lageson and other officers of the local PTA hope there will be a large attendance for the children's performance. The meeting will start at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Lageson said there will be a nurse girl to care for the small children of any parent desiring to attend.

The president said the business meeting will be short. A tea hour will follow the program.

The third grade band, with Gordon Lageson as bandmaster, will provide the music for the style review. The members of the band are Dick Penrose, Craig Moore, Floyd Wright, Donald Butz, Frank Davies, Rae Buster, Patricia Sturdevant, Jacqueline Bonivert, Shirley Lewis, Alverna Cagley, Roy Draper and Joanna Godfrey.

Mrs. Warnecke's class will display old time styles. Sue Moore, Wayne Martin, Katherine Wayne, Amelio Pello, Frances Howtan, Freddie Benuzzi, Anita Orzalli and Richard Lane will feature the old time styles.

Miss Savory Ford's class will show modern styles Those to perform are Betty Joe George, Kay DeNeal, Georgine Danus, Darrel Moody, Roberta Hurst, Terry St. John, Joyce Phillips and Jackie Egan.

The evening clothing fashions will be presented by Miss Goyne's class. The students to style are Germaine Marsh, Ann Coughlin, Armonita Yuen, Hazel Ivie, Koreen Buster, Roberta Simmons, Margaret Finnegan and Warren Baxter.

Mrs. Anderson will act as the pianist for the program.

THINKING OUT LOUD

Art Kelley in a Grass Valley gambling saloon on the night of September 20, 1859. It was evident that he had intended to shoot Curly Smith, an associate of his with whom he had recently quarreled. Someone conveniently shot out the lights after the homicide and Moore was able to escape. The law men apprehended him at his home shortly afterward.

During Moore's imprisonment, Jenny visited him frequently, and often brought him his meals. She was said to have given up her tomboy mannerisms, and had soberly gone to work as waitress in a local restaurant. Moore was sentenced to hang for the killing of Art Kelley. The execution was scheduled for a Friday, but Moore committed suicide by taking poison on Thursday night. People suspected that his young wife had given him the fatal chemicals. A groove on the bottom of his cell chair was found, where the poison was concealed. Also on the bottom of the chair was found a small, sharp knife, fashioned from wire, and stuck to the bottom of the chair by wax.

Soon after her husband's suicide, Jenny tried to kill herself. She failed, and afterwards she admitted that she had known that Moore possessed poison, though she swore she had not given it to him. The innocence of this sparkling, vivacious young girl had worn off early in the roistering mining community, and as time wore on, Jenny was to sink tragically in the eyes of law-abiding society. Her story will be continued in a later column.

POSTOFFICE OPEN SUNDAY

The Nevada City postoffice will be open all day Saturday to care for Christmas mailing. The Saturday hours will be from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The postoffice will also be open from 10 a. m. to 12 noon Sunday subject to demand, with the exception of the money order window, for delivering and receiving packages and for stamp sale. There will also be one delivery of mail and parcel post on Sunday.

TREE FALLS IN RESERVOIR A large pine tree fell in Nevada City's new reservoir and part of it is still floating in the water. The tree broke off in several places in the fall and all but one large section was dragged from the reservoir by the city crew.

City Superintendent of Streets Herbert Hallett said the severe wind and rain storm of the past several days resulted in no change here but the city crews were kept busy keeping storm drains clear.

Installing Of Mill At Fisher Maiden Is Planned

George M. and Andrew J. Carey announced here they plan to install a stamp mill at their Fisher Maiden Mine in the Mt. Oro mining district.

The brothers said the mill will be placed at the Fisher Maiden in the spring when the weather permits the opening of the road into the mining property.

The Careys have been developing their Fisher Maiden Mine, which consists of six quartz claims and one placer claim, for many years. Several tunnels have been driven and a shaft sunk. In development work last year a fifty to sixty foot ledge showing free gold was uncovered. The Careys plan to further develop the ledge and to treat the ore in the stamp mill, which will be installed at the property.

They report zinc and galina are associated with the gold in the ore of eight veins on their property. The ore also carries iron.

Robert M. Ewing, owner of the Queen of Mt. Oro Mine, which adjoins the Fisher Maiden, reports he expects to reopen his property soon. The Queen of Mt. Oro reportedly has a good production record.

In the same mining district are the Scriven Mines and the Golden Edna Mine, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martine of Nevada City.

Dividend of $300 Is Given Stockholders Of Tennessee Mine, Poker Flat

The first dividend, amounting to $300, has been reported from operations at the Tennessee Gravel Mine in the Poker Flat district near Downieville. Work is proceeding in developing and cleaning out the old tunnel which was partially caved due to a large slide which occurred last year. The mine is owned and operated by the Pore brothers and the Scott interests. The Tennessee formerly was owned by State Treasurer Gus Johnson.

HYDRAULICKING TO START SOON AT RELIEF HILL

C. E. Clark, manager of the Relief Hill Hydraulic Mine, announced here Sunday the Relief Hill is ready for the hydraulic season, which will commence when a sufficient amount of rain falls to assure water for the monitors.

Two monitors will be operated at the Relief Hill this year. A good season is anticipated.

Mining Scenes In Mt. O

CHRISTMAS PLAY AND CAROLS AT HIGH SCHOOL

At 8 p. m. tonight, the Nevada City High School will open its Christmas program at the High School Auditorium. There will be no admission fee. The general public is cordially invited.

The program is to be opened by the lighting of tapers by two choir boys. A robed choir, directed by Mrs. Libbey will carry lighted candles and sing "O Come All Ye Faithful" as a processional. A pastoral number will be played by the orchestra, which is directed by Mr. Smith.

The Elementary Choir, which consists of twelve pupils in red robes will carry lighted candles and sing an impressive Christmas carol.

"Belshar's Well", a three act play will be presented by the students of the High School. The time of the play takes place during the time of the birth of Christ.

The plot is a different view of the traditional nativity story.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Nathan —An innkeeper's son in Palestine, Jack Underwood.

Uncle Rueban—A selfish, grasping innkeeper, Howard Watkins.

Belshar—Another innkeeper, Edward Conti.

Rachel—An unselfish, kindly wife Dorothy Besso.

Naomi—A daughter of 14 years June Laird.

Hashah—A girl of about eight years. Lois Bankus.

Shepherd—Kindly shepherds caring for flocks, Edward Pierce, Dick Austin, Ronald Joyal, Kenneth Wallace, Dick Evans.

Mary—Mother of the Christ Child, Shirley Berk.

Joseph—Father of the Christ Child, Fred Fontana.

Haggai—Girl of 15 years offers violin music, Helen Butz.

Townspeople—Ruth Belisle, Dorothy Austin, Eleanore Besso, Sylvia Tyhurst, Dorothy Phillips, Betty Young.

Hansona—An Arab king of the desert, Bill Tobiassen.

Music for the play will be provided by Helen Butz, violin, and Betty Engstrom and Pauline Keckler, clarinets. Throughout the program the choir will sing many familiar Christmas carols.

EIGHT MEN ARE AT FIRE CAMP

A crew of eight men is being maintained at the State Division of Forestry fire camp near here in the case of emergency.

The outbreak of the war and the danger of possible fires from saboteurs and air raids resulted in the establishing of the crew at the local camp.

Ranger William Sharp said the men are subject to call in any part of the state.

The state division of highways reported the Yuba Pass route is still

All things come to those who wait but pedestrian accident statistics of the Department of Motor Vehicles show the middle of the street is a poor place to wait for friends.

Permit Required For Possessions Of Explosives

The declaration of a state of war makes effective the Federal Explosives Act of Oct. 6, 1917, which prohibits the manufacture, distribution, storage, use or possession of explosives, unless a license has been obtained from the Director of the Bureau of Mines, it was announced by Dr. R. R. Seyers, Director of the Bureau. Exempted are explosives used by the Army and Navy.

A revised version of the 1917 Act has been passed by both houses of the present congress, and the measure is now in conference to iron out minor differences between the House of Representatives and the Senate, Director Sayers stated. In its essentials, however, it is similar to the original law.

Personnel to act as licensing offices for the bureau now are being selected, forms are being printed, and all other preparations are being made to put the provisions of the law into operation immediately, Director Sayers advised Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes.

Governor Urges Conserving Of Paperboard In Interest Of National Defense

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 15.—(UP)—Explaining that "there is an alarming shortage of paperboard in the United States", Gov. Olson today proclaimed a waste paper shortage in California.

"It is absolutely necessary that waste paper be conserved for national defense," said the governor. "I urge all county and municipal authorities, business institutions, hotel and apartment house owners and the housewives to conserve for defense purposes, all their waste paper and I also urge charitable organizations and waste paper dealers to put every effort behind the gathering of waste paper so it can be converted into a necessary defense."

Bombing Fear Attracting People To Nevada County

The fear bombs may drop on the coast cities appears to be attracting people to Nevada County.

W. Church of Oakland, who has friends in Nevada City, was here Friday and announced he was renting a home in Grass Valley for his wife, children and parents to protect them from possible bombing.

Reports indicate others are seeking houses for the same reason.

LEVEES PATROLLED

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11(UP)—Levees of the Sacramento, Feather and San Joaquin rivers which are under jurisdiction of the division of water resources are being patrolled by armed guards to prevent sabotage of the levee system, Franz R. Sachse, assistant director of public works announced today.

State engineer Edward Hyatt and his staff are making a complete study of the northern California levee system to determine the spots of greatest potential danger.

The survey will include a study of Sacramento Valley communities which might be affected should saboteurs destroy levees.

Sachse said department of public works guards were watching the east levee of the Sutter by-pass but that the water level was not high enough to be dangerous if the levee were breached.

SHANGRI-LA CLUB ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Marjorie Kopp was hostess to the Shangri-La Club members at her home Tuesday night. The regular meeting of the club was in the form of a Christmas party. Carols were sung and there was an exchange of gifts. Each member donated a package for the White Christmas.

The next meeting will be held at the Karkling home on December 29.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT URGES SUPPORT OF XMAS SEAL SALE

President Franklin D. Roosevelt has issued an appeal for support of the Christmas Seal sale, now in progress nationally and conducted in this county by the Nevada County Tuberculosis Association with John R. Mann as general chairman.

The local sale will continue to Christmas Day and the proceeds will be used toward the eradication of tuberculosis in Nevada County and elsewhere in the nation.

The appeal of President Roosevelt follows:

"We must continue to give our full support to the National Tuberculosis Association and its 1,700 affiliated organizations throughout the country.

"We must help overcome a disease that still kills more persons between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other cause of death. The anti-tuberculosis campaign has long been a vital part of the foundation of the structure of our country because health is the first requisite of a nation as of an individual.

This year above all years there must, and I am sure we will, faithfully observe one of our oldest, most worthy American customs —giving health to ourselves and to others through Christmas Seals."

Volunteer Registration Of Those Who Have Facilities For Evacuees Asked Here

The Nevada County Welfare Department has started a registration of all available room space in the county in preparation for the possible evacuation of children and aged and sick from the heavy production areas.

"Certain sections of the Pacific Coast are engaged heavily in defense production," Welfare Director Charles Ingram said. "These areas are logical targets for attacks from enemy air, land and sea forces. Should such attacks occur large groups of the civilian populations will have to be evacuated to regions removed from attack areas.

"The sub-committee on welfare of the state council of defense, working through the county defense councils, has requested that local units set up plans for care of persons from bombed areas or refugees. These plans call for (a) facilities for the evacuated children, sick and aged (b) development of food, shelter, clothing, boarding homes or communities for care of refugees or persons driven out by bombings or general war conditions."

Ingram said the first step in the organization of facilities will be to set up a program for caring for the evacuated children.

A call has been issued for a volunteer registration of people who have homes and facilities available for children.

Word Received Here Of Death Recently At Bay Of Mrs. Walter Bradley

Mrs. Elsie Putnam of Yuba City in a letter here to Mrs. Edna Martine tells of the recent death in San Francisco of Mrs. Walter Bradley, wife of the state mineralogist.

Whenever State Menarilogist Bradley came to the mining communities of Nevada City and Grass Valley on business he was accompanied by his wife.

Mrs Bradley was regarded as a charming woman and her death will be regretted. Bradley is a past grand patron of the Order of Eastern Star and local Eastern Star members remember a visit to the local chapter several years ago.

Local Defense Council Perfecting Blackout Plans

Al Bates, Chief Air Raid Warden of the Nevada City Defense Council stated today that plans for blackout of Nevada City are nearing completion and a full organization will be completed in a day or two. Appointment cards are being sent air raid wardens with instructions that they appear before Police Chief Solaro to be sworn in as special city police and to receive full instructions on what to do when a blackout is ordered.

The plan Bates has devised is as follows:

1—Nevada City will be divided into four sections.

2—One warden of each district will be designated as captain and will be in charge of the district.

3—Each warden will be assigned an area in which he will be responsible to see that all lights are extinguished and that a complete blackout will occur.

4—Each warden will be provided with an arm band with the letters ARW thereon.

Bates issued an urgent appeal to all citizens to fully cooperate with the Air Raid Wardens. The wardens are appointed and will be giving up their time, solely for the protection of lives and property and to prevent the giving of aid to the enemy. Full cooperation will insure desired results and if no explanation or arguments are necessary the warden will be able to cover his area in the shortest possible time.

"When they say 'lights out,' please comply immediately," Bates requested.

The following general rules are set forth for citizens to insure a complete blackout.

1—If you are in an automobile, park it immediately, turn off your lights. Do not use your flashlight and light no matches.

2—If you are home, stay in the house. If you go on the street you interfere with the Air Raid Warden.

3—When you go to bed, turn out all of your lights.

4—If you go out for the evening, leave no lights burning either inside or outside.

5—Disconnect your illuminated house number sign for the duration of this emergency.

6—Do not allow your children to run around on bicycles, as they will interfere with wardens and emergency vehicles.

7—Keep your dogs on leashes or locked up at night, as they will always attack a person running in the dark.

8—Give your warden a break, cooperate with him fully.

9—Keep cool, be calm and remember it is you who is being protected.

It was also stated that the city has now completed the installation of a whistle of sufficient size to be heard in all parts of the city.

FOR BLACKOUT — 3 BLASTS AT SHORT INTERVALS — 3 TIMES.
FOR ALL CLEAR — 2 BLASTS AT SHORT INTERVALS — 3 TIMES.

NUTRITION COMMITTEE IS ORGANIZED HERE

The Nevada-Sierra County Nutrition Committee was organized at a meeting in the Elementary School Auditorium Monday night.

The committee will cooperate with the defense councils and will have two principal objectives.

1—To provide better information for the general public in regard to nutrition and thereby provide better food for workers and those at home.

2—To provide better information for the general public on how to get the full value of the dollar in purchasing food for better health.

District Attorney Vernon Stoll, chairman of the Nevada Count Defense Council, presided at the meeting after Mrs. Isabel Hefelfinger, local school health supervisor, opened the meeting.

Rev. David Ralston was named chairman of the committee and Dr. O. F. Lang secretary. Various other committee members are to be selected.

BENNETT GIVEN LIEUTENANCY

William G. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Bennett, graduated from the air corps advanced flying school at Stockton. He was granted a second lieutenant's commission in the army air corps.

Cadet Bennett is a graduate of the Nevada City High School. He attended Sacramento Junior College and College of Pacific. Preliminary air training was received at Ontario.

FIRST AID INSTRUCTION

First aid instruction is being offered to the people of Nevada County at the Hennessy School in Grass Valley under direction of the Nevada County Defense Council. Dr. D. L. Hirsch and Harold Houser are instructors and are assisted by Dallas Smith, school nurse.

Another class of people who do not always turn out as expected are the Sunday drivers.

Hydraulicking Expected To Resume Soon At Grass Flat Property in Sierra County

Preparations for resumption of hydraulic mining are nearing completion at the Grass Flat, better known as the Pioneer Project property in the Howland Flat area of Sierra County.

Extensive deposits of profitable gold bearing gravel are reported available. Water has been developed for operation of two monitors and tailings will be discharged into Slate Creek and diverted to the storage reservoir behind Bullards Bar dam.

The Grass Flat property comprises the Challenge, Comet, Grass Flat, Pioneer and Riffle claims located on the Howland Flat channel. It is credited with producing $13,000,000 before work was stopped by the Sawyer decision nearly sixty years ago. A gasoline shovel was used to clean out ditches and prepare the operating pit for hydraulic giants and sluices.

Production at full capacity is expected to commence soon. The property is held under a lease from Bill Pike, the owner, by District Attorney A. J. Just, Supervisor A. J. Modglin and Ross Taylor, assistant surveyor, all of Sierra County.

SAFE IN HONOLULU

Word has been received by friends of Mrs. Fred Clark that she and her husband and daughter Hetty are safe in Honolulu. Mr. Clark is employed on defense projects. Roy Clark will leave Thursday for Honolulu where he will be employed on defense projects.

TUNNEL DRIVEN AT KIRKPATRICK

Five men are employed at the Kirkpatrick Mine near Goodyears Bar, where a 500 foot tunnel is being driven to tap the gravel channel known to exist there. Completion of the tunnel will provide an easier entrance to the mine and a means af underground drainage without pumping. Operations are expected to continue throughout the winter. Rinaldo Daneri of Downieville is in charge of the work. The property is being operated by Charles G. Johnson, state treasurer of California.

Mayor Ben Hall is expected to return to Nevada City this week from Carmel, where he and his wife have been living for the past ten days.

CITIZENS OF NEVADA COUNTY

Certain sections of the Pacific Coast are engaged heavily in defense production. These areas are logical targets for attacks from enemy air, land and sea forces. Should such attacks occur large groups of the civilian populations will have to be evacuated to regions removed from attack areas.

The Sub-Committee on Welfare of the State Council of Defense, working through the County Defense Counsils, has requested that local units set up plans for care of persons from bomber areas or refugees. These plans call for, (a) facilities for evacuated children, sick and aged (b) development of food, shelter, clothing, boarding homes or communities for care of refugees or persons driven out by bombings or general war conditions.

The Welfare Department of Nevada County has offered its services ,and is working with the County Council of Defense in this work. The first step in the organization of facilities will be to set up a program for caring for evacuee children.

The committee is herewith calling for a volunteer registration of people who have homes and facilities available for children. It is a fundamental policy of the State Committee on Welfare that children shall be cared for in normal homes under normal conditions as far as possible.

Produced below is a registration form. Volunteers are asked to register by means of this form. Please fill in the spaces with the required information and then mail the form to Hundreds of Nevada City children this afternoon enjoyed a free show at the Nevada Theatre. Bill Tamblyn, manager was their host.

The free show was sponsored this year by the Nevada Theatre, Nevada City Coordinating Council, Rotary Club, Elks Lodge and Business and Professional Women's Club.

The pictures shown today were A Bear's Tale, Marrie Melody, Africa Squeaks, Loonie Tune and Heart of the North.

Church Notes

—Methodist Church

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. Processional "O Come All Ye Faithful." Grass Valley Women's Choral Society, Mrs. J. Little, director Carols by the choral group. Baptismal service. Violin solo. Carols by the choral society. Sermon "God With Us", Rev. Ralston. The choral society will sing "Silent Night." Epworth League at 6 p. m. Wishing you all a happy and joyous Christmas. Rev. David Ralston.

—Trinity Episcopal Church

Trinity Episcopal Church will hold its Christmas Manger service this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock — a large family service for the Sunday School children, their parents, and the regular congregation of the parish.

The old, familiar Christmas Carols will be sung, and in place of a sermon, Mr. Porter will tell a Christmas story. All Sunday school students and their parents are invited to attend this service which will take the place of the usual Sunday School hour at 9:45.

Gifts of canned goods and foodstuffs will be brought forward and deposited in the Manger. Irwin Timmons, Sunray School scholar, will play a violin solo.

Special music has been prepared by Trinity Choir under the direction of Mrs. Carl Libbey. Mrs. Fred Anderson is the organist.

—Christian Science Society

The Christian Science Society in Nevada City holds service at 114 Boulder Street every Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. A testimonial meeting is held the first Wednesday of each month at 8 p. m.

"Is The Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the lesson sermon Sunday The Golden Text will be:

"God hath soken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God", (Psalms 62:11).

Bible selections will include the following passages from Isiah 45: 5, 12: "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: I have made the earth, and created man upon it; I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded".

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which reads as follows: "The true theory of the universe, including man, is not in material history but in spiritual development, Inspired thought relinquishes a material, sensual, and mortal theory of the universe, and adopts the spiritual and immortal." (p. 547).

Nevada Theatre

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

SWAMP WATER: With Walter Huston, Ann Baxter and Walter Brennan. A gripping story of the strange people of the Okenefskee Swamp country.

SATURDAY

HIGHWAY WEST: Starring Brenda Marshall in a breath-taking film story of the great western highways. Plus DOWN MEXICO WAY featuring Gene Autry. Also a new serial opens Saturday night.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

SUNDOWN: This dramatizes and eptomizes Africa and the war. It is based on the story by the same name appearing in the Saturday Evening Post some months ago. Gene Tierney and Bruce Cabot the stars.
